SHRI C. RAMACHANDRAIAH: Let me complete; then, he can understand the importance of the subject. ...(Interruptions)... Sir, the deal of transfer of shares has to be done before 30th March, 2006. As per the normal procedure, the Indian Overseas Bank has to wait for the expiry of 30 days; the statutory notice period has to be taken into account to enable the merger between the Indian Overseas Bank which is a public sector bank and the Bharat Overseas Bank, the process for acquisition of shares from the other private sector banks shareholders has to be completed before 30th March, 2006. in the public interest I propose that this can be dispensed with and that is why I want to move a motion.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Please take your seat. ...(Interruptions)... बस, ठीक है।

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI PAWAN KUMAR BANSAL): Sir, we have no objection to this. You may kindly fix up any time, which you consider appropriate.

MATTER RAISED WITH PERMISSION

Panic over Bird Flu

MR. CHAIRMAN : Hon. Members, I have to inform that Special Mentions will be taken up in the House today after the Listed Business before the House for the day is completed.

SHRI NILOTPAL BASU (West Bengal): Sir, at the very outset, I would like to thank you for allowing me to make this mention. I think for the last one month or so this country has been witnessing a major noise on this whole question of bird flu in this country. Sir, it is perhaps not a coincidence that we had been hearing about all these major outbreaks of epidemics and so on in the Asian countries which are supposedly the emerging economies of the world today. First, Sir, we had heard about the SARAS and then the bird flu in a very big way. Now, Sir, if one goes by the actual figures of incidence of this kind of diseases and the extent to which the lethal nature of these diseases are being highlighted in the media, one finds that there is a mismatch between the actual incidence of the diseases
